

Award-winning contemporary Chinese painter & artist

MICHAEL ANDREW LAW

Law Cheuk Yui, known professionally as Michael Andrew Law, is a world-recognized artist based in Hong Kong who has received global praise for his contemporary pop paintings that blend social commentary and dialogue with art history. His work has been picked up by famous collectors such as contemporary art superstars Mickalene Thomas, Mark Bradford and Theaster Gates.

THE BEGINNING

Born in 1982 in British Hong Kong, Law studied painting with New York classical painter Dan Anderson.

He co-founded the Hong Kong Art Studio Nature Art Workshop in 2008 before launching the Gallery Michael Andrew Law in 2015 and the Michael Andrew Law Art School in 2016.

THE FUTURE

Law embraces digital gallery spaces creating huge interest and online sales from original arts and prints with overseas collectors. His original art, commission artworks and limited edition prints are available on platforms such as Instagram, Singulart, Saatchi Art and more.

www.michaelandrewlaw.com

